2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, Americanah. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, Americanah. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: A happy ending – Ifemelu and Obinze are reunited; an provocative cliff-hanger – uncertainty over Ifemelu and Obinze’s future is intriguing; predictable finale – two main protagonists obviously reunite; unsatisfactory conclusion – Obinze leaving his wife and daughter for Ifemelu with apparently no consequences for the lovers; disappointing conclusion - having tackled complex issues such as race, religion and discrimination the conclusion is rather mundane and disappointing, etc.

Combined Criteria ex 10	P+C = 6	L + M = 4

3. Answer ONE of the following: [Each part carries 30 marks]

- (i) Based on events in the novel, Americanah, write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline:

“ IMMIGRATION FRAUD FAILS – FAKE MARRIAGE PLANS EXPOSED”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the headline: “ IMMIGRATION FRAUD FAILS – FAKE MARRIAGE PLANS EXPOSED”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Obinze engages with criminals to arrange a false marriage to Cleotilde in order to gain resident status in England. He is arrested on the day of the wedding and eventually deported back to Nigeria, etc.

- (ii) Write a piece in which you compare Ifemelu's experience as an immigrant in America with Obinze's experience as an immigrant in England. Support your answer with reference to the novel, Americanah.

Candidates should write a piece in which they compare Ifemelu's experience as an immigrant in America with Obinze's experience as an immigrant in England. Answers should be supported by reference to the text. Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: both find their experiences as immigrants challenging.

Ifemelu's experience: Ifemelu enters America legally as she has a visa and a scholarship to a university in Philadelphia, she uses a fake ID card for work, despite some initial difficulties she is eventually successful socially and academically, as a native African she is often considered exotic, she develops a successful blog and becomes well-known, she decides to move back to Nigeria of her own volition, etc.

Obinze's experience: Obinze moves to England on graduation but can't find a good job, his visa expires and he works in menial jobs on a rented identity card while attempting to avoid detection, his attempt to gain legal status through a fake marriage is thwarted leading to his arrest and deportation back to Nigeria, etc.

B THE HANDMAID'S TALE – Margaret Atwood

Answer all of the questions.

1. (a) Describe Offred's life before the Republic of Gilead was established. (10)

Candidates should describe Offred's life before the Republic of Gilead was established. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Offred lived with her husband, Luke, and daughter; she had a rocky relationship with her radical feminist mother; she went to college where she was friends with Moria; she had a "normal" life with choice and freedom, a job, her own money; she enjoyed going to galleries and museums, she used to smoke, she had a garden, etc.

(b) Identify one challenge Offred faces when she becomes a handmaid and explain how she responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text. (10)

Candidates should identify one challenge Offred faces when she becomes a handmaid and explain how she responds to this challenge. Answers should be supported by reference to the text. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Offred is challenged by: her lack of freedom and personal identity; the obligation to procreate with the Commander; having to obey the many rules and endure the restrictions imposed on handmaids. She responds by: being discreetly subversive; she relives her past life and draws comfort from her memories; she tries to maintain her psychological freedom, etc.

2. Explain the main reason why you do or do not agree that the "Historical Notes" are an effective way to end the novel, The Handmaid's Tale. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not agree that the "Historical Notes" are an effective way to end the novel, The Handmaid's Tale. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Agree: the notes help readers to believe that the Republic of Gilead was a real place that actually existed in history; they make the preceding narrative even more convincing as the characters, their lives and society appear to be the subject of academic research; they encourage readers to engage with the important aspects of the story – the fragility of democracy and civilised society/the dangers of misogyny, etc. beyond their appeal as entertainment, etc.

Disagree: Unsatisfactory conclusion to Offred’s story, the reader is left unaware of her ultimate fate; the notes do not seem a natural addition to the narrative; they do not contribute to making the novel more credible/entertaining/enjoyable, etc.

Combined Criteria ex 10	P+C = 6	L + M = 4

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline: “AUNT ASSAULTED AS WOMAN ESCAPES FROM RED CENTRE”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Moira makes good her escape from the Red Centre (i.e. the Rachel and Leah Centre) by luring Aunt Elizabeth into a toilet, threatening to stab her with something sharp, stealing her clothes and her pass and finally leaving her tied up, behind a furnace, etc.

(ii) Write a piece in which you compare how Offred and Moira deal with life in the Republic of Gilead. Support your answer with reference to the novel, The Handmaid’s Tale.

Candidates should write a piece in which they compare how Offred and Moira deal with life in the Republic of Gilead. Answers should be supported by reference to the text. Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Offred copes reasonably well with the restrictions, regulations and difficulties of being a handmaid in Gilead by living in her head – her memories of her mother, husband and daughter and hope of seeing them again keep her going. She also copes by overtly cooperating with the system but engaging in subversive acts of defiance e.g. developing a relationship with Nick whose friendship helps her to cope with the many difficulties she faces, etc. Moirá's ability to cope is linked to her feisty nature, initially she confronts the difficulties she faces full on – escaping from the Red (Rachel and Leah) Centre and spending months on the run on the Underground Femaleroad. She seems to be coping less well when Offred meets her in the nightclub where she is forced to work as a prostitute. While Offred observes a flash of Moirá's former defiance, she seems more indifferent and resigned to her awful fate, etc.

C PERSUASION – Jane Austen

Answer all of the questions.

1. (a) Describe the problems facing Sir Walter Elliot at the beginning of the novel.

Candidates should describe the problems facing Sir Walter Elliot at the beginning of the novel. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Sir Walter's problems are largely financial; the family has fallen into debt due to his extravagance and are now "distressed for money". In order to pay his debts and retain ownership of his property he is obliged to find a tenant to rent his mansion, Kellynch Hall. He leases his property to Admiral Croft and has to move temporarily to Bath, etc.

(b) Identify one challenge Anne faces when Captain Wentworth re-enters her life and explain how she responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text.

Candidates should identify one challenge Anne faces when Captain Wentworth re-enters her life and explain how she responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response should be considered with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Annie is faced with significant social and emotional challenges when Captain Wentworth re-enters her life, she is embarrassed by the return of her former fiancé to her social circle and has to acknowledge that she still has deep feelings for him although he now seems indifferent to her. She copes by observing the social niceties, concealing her emotions and behaving exactly as a polite young lady should. She displays admirable self-control and fortitude under the circumstances, etc.

2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel,

Persuasion.

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, Persuasion. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the ending is a happy one – Captain Wentworth overcomes his pride and the shame of being rejected once in order to declare his love for Anne again, Mrs Russell and Sir Walter Elliot both accept Captain Wentworth as a suitable spouse for Anne; Anne and Captain Wentworth marry; Anne is free from the constraints of her family’s foolishness and vanity; Captain Wentworth helps Mrs Smith to recover her West Indian property; the ending is fair and just – the good characters prosper while Mr William Elliot’s plan to marry Anne for selfish reasons fails; the ending is predictable and stereotypical with the hero and heroine marrying, etc.

3. Answer ONE of the following: [Each part carries 30 marks]

- (i) Based on events in the novel, Persuasion, write an article suitable for publication in a popular magazine beginning with the following title:

“TRUE LOVE TRIUMPHS IN THE END!”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write an article suitable for publication in a popular magazine beginning with the headline: “TRUE LOVE TRIUMPHS IN THE END!”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The romance between Anne Elliot and Captain Wentworth is likely to form the basis for the article; the original engagement which Anne breaks on the advice of her friend and mentor, Lady Russell, due to Wentworth’s lack of fortune and poor prospects, the years of estrangement, Anne’s undying affection for Wentworth, her refusal to marry Charles Musgrove, Wentworth’s unexpected return to her social circle – now wealthy due to his naval successes, Wentworth’s jealousy on seeing William Elliot court Anne, the chance overhearing by Wentworth of a conversation between Anne and Harville that leads to their reconciliation and ultimately marriage, etc.

- (ii) Write a piece in which you compare Anne’s two suitors, Captain Wentworth and Mr. William Elliot, and the sincerity of each man’s affection for Anne. Support your answer with reference to the novel, Persuasion.

Candidates should write a piece in which they compare Anne’s two suitors, Captain Wentworth and Mr. William Elliot, and the sincerity of each man’s affection for Anne. Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Captain Wentworth is a naval officer who has made his fortune due to his achievements in the Napoleonic wars; he is portrayed as a true gentleman, popular in society and a naval hero. He was originally engaged to marry Anne but she broke off the engagement. Although initially polite but cold towards Anne when they meet again many years later, Wentworth's affections are rekindled as he grows to know Anne better, he admires her, and comes to understand why she severed their original engagement. He becomes jealous when she is pursued by William Elliot. He professes his true and undying love for Anne in a letter. They are once more engaged and go on happily to marry, etc.

William Elliot is a relative and presumed heir of Anne's father, Sir Walter Elliot. He is a widower and despite his sociable appearance, Anne discovers his betrayal of the late Mr Smith and his harsh treatment of Smith's widow. He wants to marry Anne for purely selfish reasons – he is fearful he will lose his inheritance if Sir Walter marries Mrs Clay and believes marriage to Anne will secure his position, etc.

D BY THE BOG OF CATS – Marina Carr

Answer all of the questions.

1. (a) Describe Hester’s disturbing experiences in the snow at the beginning of the play. (10)

Candidates should describe Hester’s disturbing experiences in the snow at the beginning of the play. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Hester meets the disturbing figure of the Ghost fancier while she carries the frozen, mutilated corpse of her beloved swan, Black Wing across the snow. The Ghost fancier does not recognise her but tells her he is “ghoulin” for her and causes her great distress as he appears to foretell her death, etc.

(b) Identify one challenge Hester faces due to Carthage’s marriage to Caroline and explain how she responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text. (10)

Candidates should identify one challenge Hester faces due to Carthage’s marriage to Caroline and explain how she responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Hester faces permanent exclusion from Carthage’s affections; the loss of her home; the prospect of having to share her daughter, Josie, with Carthage and his new wife, etc. Hester responds to these challenges by burning her house and murdering Josie, etc.

2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the play, By the Bog of Cats. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the play, By the Bog of Cats. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the ending is bleak and disturbing – the murder is sickeningly violent; the ending is too extreme – the deaths of both Hester and Josie are almost unbearable; the ending provides a satisfactory sense of completion – the slain mother and daughter will, through death, be forever “presences” on the bog, as Hester wished; Hester remained true to her herself, refusing to comply with the community’s wishes to exile her and separate her from Josie; the ending fulfils the constant foreboding/foreshadowing throughout; the ending is in-keeping with the original tragedy of Medea, etc.

- (i) Based on events in the play, By the Bog of Cats, write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline:

“HOUSE FIRE ON THE BOG OF CATS”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the play.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline: “HOUSE FIRE ON THE BOG OF CATS”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the play, By the Bog of Cats. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The article should deal with Hester’s burning of the house she lived in with her daughter, Josie. This could be seen as a direct response to her eviction from the premises on foot of the wedding of Carthage and Caroline. The fire is first reported by her neighbour, Monica. Hester makes no attempt to conceal that she is responsible for the blaze and seems indifferent to the consequences. Her actions are shocking, especially the fact that cattle were burned to death in the inferno, etc.

- (ii) Write a piece in which you compare Carthage’s relationship with Hester and his relationship with Caroline. Support your answer with reference to the play, By the Bog of Cats.

Candidates should write a piece in which they compare Carthage’s relationship with Hester and his relationship with Caroline. Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Carthage's relationship with Hester is over by the time the play begins, she is older than him and the mother of their child, Josie. Carthage has moved on but Hester remains obsessed with Carthage and refuses to accept his marriage to Caroline. Carthage's mother does not approve of his relationship with Hester. There seems to have been enormous passion in the relationship between Hester and Carthage. Hester's "tinker" heritage seems to be an issue in the relationship. Carthage seems unwilling or unable to cope with Hester's wild nature and violent tendencies. Hester claims that Carthage was implicated in the murder of her brother, Joseph. Carthage threatens to take Josie from Hester, etc. Carthage's relationship with Caroline is very different to that with Hester. Caroline is younger, more biddable and less independent minded than Hester. Their relationship, while to some extent a marriage of convenience related to property and money, seems relatively normal, without the extremes of emotion associated with Carthage's relationship with Hester, etc.

E ROOM – Emma Donoghue

Answer all of the questions.

1. (a) Describe how Ma tried to make life normal for Jack while they lived in Room.

Candidates should describe how Ma tried to make life normal for Jack while they lived in Room. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Ma tried to make life normal for Jack by creating routine in their lives. She devised education and fitness regimes which they followed. Ma keeps their accommodation tidy and organised. She tried to provide him with healthy food and limit his TV watching. She celebrated his birthdays. She convinces him that their life in Room is real and the life he sees on television is fictional, etc.

(b) Identify one challenge Jack faces when he leaves Room and explain how he responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text. (10)

Candidates should identify one challenge Jack faces when he leaves Room and explain how he responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Jack faces many challenges on leaving Room including: realising that a world outside Room exists; adapting to the many confusing aspects of the “real” world including going outside, using sunscreen, going down stairs, unfamiliar food, “brightness, hotness and soundness” etc.; engaging with his relations including his grandmother, Uncle Paul, Aunt Deana and cousin, Bronwyn; dealing with being recognised by strangers as the boy from Room; coping with Ma’s depression, etc. Jack mostly responds well to the various challenges he faces although he misses aspects of his life in Room – its familiarity and security, being breast fed by Ma, etc. He is occasionally confused and angry. He uses “Rug” and “Tooth” for comfort and reassurance, etc.

2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, Room. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, Room. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the ending is a happy one – Ma and Jack escape from their imprisonment and return to a more “normal” life; the ending is moving – the final trip back to room is difficult for Ma but gives closure to Jack, his final farewell to Room is poignant; the ending is hopeful - Jack and Ma plan for the future, there is a sense of moving on and a new beginning for both Ma and Jack; the ending is realistic – although Jack is happy, he finds the world outside Room confusing and he sometimes wishes he had never escaped; final trip back to Room was upsetting for Ma; the ending is incomplete – we are unaware of Old Nick’s fate, etc.

Combined Criteria ex 10	P+C = 6	L + M = 4

3. Answer ONE of the following: [Each part carries 30 marks]

- (i) Based on events in the novel, Room, write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline:

“BRAVE BOY HELPS POLICE FREE MISSING MOTHER”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline: “BRAVE BOY HELPS POLICE FREE MISSING MOTHER”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The article should be based on Jack’s role in escaping from Room and helping to rescue his mother from Old Nick’s clutches; how Ma and Jack devise an escape plan elements of which they practice in advance. The plan consists of “Dead, Truck, Wiggle Out, Jump, Run, somebody, Note, police, blowtorch”, etc.

Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Difficulties in Room: Ma copes remarkably well with the many difficulties she faces in Room. She attempts to create an alternative form of normality for Jack and this seems to give form and a structure to her life. She manages to protect Jack from the reality of their situation and has mixed success in getting what she needs from Old Nick. She manages to shield Jack from the abuse she suffers from her kidnapper. While suffering the occasional bout of depression, she mostly manages to cope and successfully plans their escape from incarceration, etc. Difficulties after she escapes: Once released from Room, Ma has to face a different set of challenges, readjusting to a world in many ways different to the one from which she was snatched. Re-establishing a relationship with her mother, independent living, etc. At times she is strong and able to cope, however her overdose indicates how difficult she finds coping with life, etc.

F THE GREAT GATSBY – F. Scott Fitzgerald

Answer all of the questions.

- 1. (a) Describe the relationship between Tom Buchanan and his wife, Daisy, at the beginning of the novel. (10)

Candidates should describe the relationship between Tom Buchanan and his wife, Daisy, at the beginning of the novel. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Tom and Daisy are not happy together at the beginning of the novel; Tom appears indifferent to his wife, neglecting her and engaging in an affair with Myrtle Wilson; they have a three year old daughter, etc.

- (b) Identify one challenge Gatsby faces in his relationship with Daisy and explain how he responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text. (10)

Candidates should identify one challenge Gatsby faces in his relationship with Daisy and explain how he responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the use of suitable reference to the text. The quality of all aspects of the response should be considered with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The fact that Daisy is married to Tom Buchanan is a major challenge Gatsby faces in developing his relationship with her. He overcomes this challenge with Nick's cooperation; his original social inferiority presented another challenge in developing a relationship with Daisy, he overcomes this by amassing a very considerable fortune, buying a house in West Egg from where he could glimpse Daisy's East Egg home and acquiring the trappings of wealth such as expensive automobiles, etc.

- 2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, The Great Gatsby. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the novel, The Great Gatsby. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the ending provides a clear resolution – we know exactly what happens to the protagonist; the ending is very dramatic – Gatsby’s murder and Wilson’s suicide are both shocking and unexpected; the ending allows us to learn more about Gatsby, his childhood and his father, Henry C. Gatz; the ending is unhappy/unsatisfactory – our hero, Gatsby, is dead, all his hopes and dreams destroyed; there is no sense of natural justice – Myrtle’s real murderer goes unpunished; there is no happy ending for the central love story – Daisy remains with Tom; the ending could be seen as a victory for selfishness and corruption etc.

- (i) Based on events in the novel, The Great Gatsby, write a front page newspaper article beginning with the following headline:

“SHOCK AS MYSTERIOUS MILLIONAIRE FOUND DEAD”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the headline: “SHOCK AS MYSTERIOUS MILLIONAIRE FOUND DEAD”. The article should demonstrate your knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The article should deal with the murder of Jay Gatsby, how he had gone to swim in the pool at his mansion, how the chauffeur heard the shots, how Wilson’s body was discovered, how a police investigation ensued; reference may be made to Wilson’s erroneous belief that it was Gatsby who had killed his wife Myrtle, running her over in the yellow car, the inquest heard that Wilson was “deranged by grief”, etc.

- (i) Based on events in the novel, The Spinning Heart, write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline:

“RELIEF AS MISSING CHILD LOCATED”

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the novel.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following headline: “RELIEF AS MISSING CHILD LOCATED”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the novel. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The article should deal with the kidnapping and subsequent rescue of Dylan – Sean Shanahan and Réaltín’s son – taken from the local crèche. “Someone just pulled up outside the crèche and drove away with the little boy”. There was a Montessori teacher with the children at the time and four or five qualified childminders in the room next door. The Montessori teacher was taken in for questioning. A massive Garda search was launched for the missing child, locals joined the search; Réaltín was calm but Seanie was “like a madman”. Jim Gildea found the child. He was covered in “weird marks ... pentagrams and crosses and lines from poems and drawings of naked people, all in permanent marker, like tattoos drawn by a lunatic.” His head had been shaved and he was wearing Spiderman pyjamas and watching a Bob the Builder DVD when he was found. Two characters, Lloyd and Trevor, are implicated in the kidnapping, etc.

- (ii) Write a piece in which you compare Bobby’s relationship with his wife, Triona, and Seanie’s relationship with Réaltín. Support your answer with reference to the novel, The Spinning Heart.

Candidates should write a piece in which they compare Bobby Mahon’s relationship with his wife, Triona, and Seanie’s relationship with Réaltín. Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Bobby and Triona have a happy, stable marriage. They respect and support each other. Triona understands Bobby and how his relationship with his parents affected him. She is proud of his achievements and of the effect he has on other people. She never believed the rumours about Bobby and Réaltín spread by the “Teapot Taliban”. Bobby adores his “lovely, lovely” Triona, and thinks she is too good for him. He says she “made” him and he can say anything to her, she’s like a part of him, etc.

Seanie and Réaltín have a completely different type of relationship. They are not partners like Bobby and Triona. They live apart. Seanie says he loved Réaltín but claims she tricked him by getting pregnant. He is jealous that Bobby is working on her house. He wishes he had a better relationship with both Réaltín and their son, Dylan. Réaltín tells her father that Seanie is, “just useless, useless, useless ... only good for drinking and shagging floozies”. She’s not even sure Seanie is Dylan’s dad, etc.

H MACBETH – William Shakespeare

Answer all of the questions.

1. (a) Describe the effect the witches have on Macbeth when he first encounters them. (10)

Candidates should describe the effect the witches have on Macbeth when he first encounters them. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Macbeth is fascinated by the witches when he first encounters them. Banquo observes that Macbeth “seems rapt withal”. He implores them to “tell me more”. Unlike Banquo, he seems to readily believe the witches words even though their “horrid image” unfixes his hair and his “seated heart” knock at his ribs, etc.

Candidates should identify one challenge Macbeth faces when he becomes king and explain how he responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the existence of Duncan’s sons, Malcolm (his anointed heir) and Donalbain represent a significant challenge to Macbeth when he becomes King, as does Banquo’s son, Fleance, as the witches have prophesied that he shall be King. As Duncan’s sons flee in fear of their lives after their father’s murder, Macbeth is able to respond to the challenge they represent by accusing them of their father’s murder. He hires assassins to murder both Banquo and Fleance but the young boy escapes, etc.

2. Explain the main reason why you did or did not enjoy the ending of the play, Macbeth. (10)

Candidates should explain the main reason why they did or did not enjoy the ending of the play, Macbeth. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the ending is satisfying and just – good triumphs over evil; conflict is resolved; the protagonist dies; order is restored; Malcolm’s final speech unifies the country presenting a brighter optimistic vision of order and civilization; Macduff gains redemption and revenge; the ending is less than satisfactory - Malcolm is not guaranteed to be a unifying force, he is too much of a politician/self-interested/uninspiring; everything Malcolm says relates to securing his own position rather than helping the ordinary people of Scotland; he announces no plan to help the widows and orphans; the ending is too sad to be enjoyable – a great hero and warrior (Macbeth) is dead, having been reduced to a tyrant, remorse has driven Lady Macbeth to suicide, Young Siward has met an untimely end; the ending is chilling – the Macbeth’s are dead but the witches (forces of evil) still exist, the cycle of blood-letting might begin again, etc.

Your article should demonstrate your knowledge of this aspect of the play.

Candidates should write a front-page newspaper article beginning with the following heading: “NATION MOURNS AS KING DUNCAN SLAIN”. The article should demonstrate their knowledge of the play. Consideration should be given to the knowledge of the text evident in the answer and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: the article should outline the details of Duncan’s death, as they are understood at the time – the King attacked in his sleep while visiting Macbeth’s castle, his body discovered by Macduff. Initially suspicion falls on his grooms. Macbeth and his wife appear horrified. Macbeth so overwhelmed that he kills the grooms before they can be questioned. Malcolm and Donalbain flee, etc. The article might speculate if this is because they are implicated in Duncan’s murder or in fear of their own lives, tribute might be paid to what a wonderful king Duncan was, etc.

Consideration should be given to the quality of the comparison, the knowledge of the text evident in the response and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: At the beginning of the play Macbeth and his wife are an entirely united, supportive couple – he addresses her as his “dearest partner in greatness”. Together they plot the murder of King Duncan. Lady Macbeth has great influence over her husband – she stiffens his resolve to proceed with the killing when he waivers, she reassures him after he has committed the murder and returns to the scene to cover up his crime. Quickly the partnership falters. Macbeth plots the murder of Banquo and Fleance, keeping his wife in ignorance. As Macbeth falls further into the thrall of the witches, his wife seems to lose her influence over him. By the end of the play they appear to have drifted apart/been driven apart by events – we see her driven to distraction by events and with no apparent support from Macbeth, who responds to news of her death saying, “She should have died hereafter”, etc.

I THE PLAYBOY OF THE WESTERN WORLD – J.M. Synge

Answer all of the questions.

- 1. (a) Describe the relationship between Pegeen Mike and Shawn Keogh at the beginning of the play. (10)

Candidates should describe the relationship between Pegeen Mike and Shawn Keogh at the beginning of the play. Consideration should be given to the level of detail provided, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The pair intend to marry, they are only “waiting on “Father Reilly’s dispensation”. Pegeen dominates the relationship. She scarcely acknowledges Shawn when he arrives at the shebeen. Shawn is timid in her presence, etc.

- (b) Identify one challenge Shawn Keogh faces following the arrival of Christy Mahon and explain how Shawn responds to this challenge. Support your answer with reference to the text. (10)

Candidates should identify one challenge Shawn Keogh faces following the arrival of Christy Mahon and explain how Shawn responds to this challenge. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the use of suitable reference to the text and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Shawn is immediately overshadowed by the arrival of Christy. Pegeen seems besotted with the new arrival, who presents a serious challenge to Shawn for her affections. Shawn, with the cooperation of Father Reilly and the Widow Quin, tries to have Christy removed from the Shebeen. Pegeen announces that she won’t wed Shawn “if a bishop came walking for to join us”. Shawn attempts to bribe Christy to leave, offering him “The half of a ticket to the Western States” and his new hat, breeches with the double seat and his new coat. When this fails, Shawn agrees to give the Widow Quin what she wants and more if she marries Christy, etc.

Indicative material: On his arrival in Mayo Christy sees himself as “a poor orphaned traveller, has a prison behind him, and hanging before, and hell’s gap gaping below”. Greatly encouraged by the admiration of the locals, and the attention of Pegeen Mike, Christy rapidly gains confidence. He’s offered a position as pot-boy in the shebeen and usurps Shawn Keogh in Pegeen’s affections. Christy thrives on the attention, coming to see himself as “a gallant orphan cleft his father with one blow o the breeches belt.” The unexpected arrival of his father, apparently back from the dead, reverses Christy’s fortunes. Having apparently killed his father (for the second time) the locals, including Pegeen, turn on Christy, threatening to hang him. He is only saved by the intervention of his father, who is very much alive. Christy appears to have thrived on his experiences in Mayo and leaves with his father, describing himself as, “a gallant captain” and “master of all fights”, etc.

SECTION II THE COMPARATIVE STUDY (70 MARKS)

General

In all answers to questions in this section, candidates may compare and/or contrast, i.e. address similarities and/or differences in both content and style of their chosen texts.

In shaping their responses to the questions on the Comparative Study it is expected that candidates will be involved in some / all of the following kinds of activities:

- Description / analysis of the text(s) in relation to the modes for comparison
- Making general observations about texts in relation to one another
- Making connections between similar aspects of texts
- Recognising differences between texts
- Showing that similarities / differences need to be qualified
- Demonstrating awareness of themselves as readers, their reactions /responses /involvement

Expect a wide variety of approaches both in the patterns of discussion and the manner of illustration.

Some questions invite candidates to refer to one/more key moment(s) from the texts. The purpose of this is to allow the candidates to ground their responses in specific moments without feeling that they must range over the entire text(s). However, do not expect that all the illustrative references in an answer will come from the key moment(s). Candidates may offer appropriate illustrative reference from any part of the text(s).

Important Note

In answering questions on the Comparative Study, candidates are not permitted to:

- (i) re-use the Single Text already answered on
- (ii) use a text not included on the prescribed list of texts for the year in which the examination takes place
- (iii) use more than one film.

In this section:

- If an invalid text, as above, is used in a question that demands reference to one text only, no mark is awarded.
- If an invalid text, as above, is used as part of a two-part answer (Comparative), mark according to the Marking Scheme taking due account of the quality of the comparative element. Then deduct half of the marks awarded.

N.B. Questions use the word text to refer to all the different kinds of texts available for study on this course. Questions use the word character to refer to both real people and fictional characters in texts.

All texts used in this section must be prescribed for comparative study for this year's examination.

Note 1: In answering on Big Maggie by John B. Keane, candidates may refer to either the 1969 or the 1988 versions of the play.

Candidates must answer ONE question from either A – Relationships or B – Theme

SECTION III

POETRY

General.

“Students should be able to...read poetry conscious of its specific mode of using language as an artistic medium.” (DES English Syllabus, 4.5.1)

Note that responding to the unseen poem is an exercise in aesthetic reading. It is especially important, in assessing the responses of the candidates, to guard against the temptation to assume a ‘correct’ reading of the poem.

Reward the candidates’ awareness of the patterned nature of the language of poetry, its imagery, its sensuous qualities, its suggestiveness etc.

Candidates must answer the questions on the Unseen Poem and the questions on one of the Prescribed Poems – A, B, C, D.

UNSEEN POEM (20 marks)

1. What do you learn about Jack from your reading of the above poem?

Explain your answer with reference to the poem.

(10)

Candidates should outline what they learn about Jack from their reading of the poem. Answers should be supported by reference to the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Jack is tall and thin, with large hands and feet; he enjoys comedy TV programmes and fried food; he appears to be a keen footballer; he will be fifteen years of age on his next birthday; his room is untidy, etc.

2. Based on what the mother says in the above poem, do you think that she and Jack have a good relationship? Explain your response with reference to the poem. (10)

Candidates should explain why they do or do not think that Jack and his mother have a good relationship. Answers should be supported with reference to the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Jack’s mother tries to share his interests like football and comedy TV; she cooks food he likes; she tries to avoid mentioning topics that would cause friction between them; she tries to respect his tastes – no glitter on his birthday candles; she appears to regret the speed at which he is growing up; she is proud of his prowess as a footballer, etc.

PREScribed POETRY (50 marks)

Candidates must answer on ONE of the following poems: (A – D)

A BEGIN

1. (a) Identify three images used by the poet in this poem. Which one of your chosen images do you find the most appealing? Explain your answer. (15)

Candidates should identify three images from the poem “Begin”, and explain which one of their chosen images they find the most appealing. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: A particular image may appeal because – it is drawn from the natural world; it suggests a sense of renewal; it captures an attractive scene/a scene from everyday life; it offers hope/optimism; it expresses wonder at something ordinary; it links the past to the future; it is easy to picture in the mind’s eye, etc.

- (b) In your opinion, is this an uplifting poem? Explain your answer with reference to the poem. (15)

Candidates should explain whether, in their opinion, “Begin” is an uplifting poem, making reference to the poem in their answer. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the apt use of reference and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Candidates may/may not find the poem uplifting because: of the positivity expressed by the poet; his unwavering confidence in the human capacity for renewal; the use of language, including the imagery used; the sense of hope and optimism conveyed throughout; the reference to loneliness, crying birds, etc.

- (i) Imagine you are the poet, Brendan Kennelly. You have been invited to talk to a Leaving Certificate class about your poem, “Begin”. In your talk you should point out the references to everyday life you have included in your poem, and help the class to understand the meaning of the poem. Write the text of the talk you would give, demonstrating your understanding of the poem.

Candidates should adopt the persona of the poet, Brendan Kennelly. They should write the text of a talk, suitable for delivery to a Leaving Certificate class, in which they point out the references to everyday life in the poem, “Begin”, and help the class to understand the meaning of the poem. Allow for a broad interpretation of the meaning of the poem. The talk should demonstrate candidates’ understanding of the poem. Expect implicit or explicit reference to the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

OR

- (ii) Do you find this poem easy or difficult to understand? Explain your response, supporting your answer with reference to both the language and the content of the poem.

Candidates should explain whether they find the poem, “Begin”, easy or difficult to understand. Answers should be supported with reference to both the language and content of the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Candidates may find the poem easy/difficult to understand because of: the use of imagery, including appealing images from the natural world; descriptive language; repetition, assonance and alliteration; inclusive language; use of contrast; its sensual appeal; references to everyday sights and sounds to convey philosophical considerations; eternal questions of life and death explored, etc.

OR

- (iii) Do you think the poet makes effective use of the natural world to teach readers a valuable lesson or lessons in the above poem? Give reasons for your response. Support your answer with reference to the poem.

Candidates should give at least two reasons why they do or do not think the poet makes effective use of the natural world to teach readers a valuable lesson or lessons in the poem, “Begin”. Answers should be supported with reference to the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: The poet uses the natural world to teach us hope; we are reminded how we too are part of the natural cycle; the poet’s focus on very ordinary aspects of nature reminds us to enjoy and appreciate our natural environment; the hope provided by each new day dawning teaches us not to despair, to be resilient and start each new day afresh, etc.

--------------------------------	-------------------	------------------

B TO DAFFODILS

1. (a) Identify three images used by the poet in this poem. Which one of your chosen images do you find the most appealing? Explain your answer. (15)

Candidates should identify three images from the poem “To Daffodils”, and explain which one of their chosen images they find the most appealing. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: A particular image may appeal because – it is drawn from the natural world; it captures an attractive scene; it effectively compares human beings with ephemeral nature; it is easy to picture in the mind’s eye; it helps to make abstract concepts concrete; it makes death seem more gentle/less frightening; it helps us to appreciate the brevity of life/the transience of beauty, etc.

- (b) In your opinion, is this an optimistic or a pessimistic poem? Explain your answer with reference to the poem. (15)

Candidates should explain whether, in their opinion, “To Daffodils” is an optimistic or a pessimistic poem, making reference to the poem in their answer. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the apt use of reference and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Candidates may find the poem optimistic/pessimistic because: it reminds us that life/youth is short and fleeting; it reminds us that the world is beautiful but that beauty is short-lived; it reminds us of the inevitability of death; it contains depressing/mournful images/concepts, etc.

-------------------------	-----------	-----------

- (i) Imagine you are the poet, Robert Herrick. You have been invited to talk to a Leaving Certificate class about your poem, “To Daffodils”. In your talk you should explain how you suggest the rapid passage of time in the poem, and help the class to understand the meaning of the poem. Write the text of the talk you would give, demonstrating your understanding of the poem.

- (ii) Do you find this poem easy or difficult to understand? Explain your response, supporting your answer with reference to both the language and the content of the poem.

Candidates should explain whether they find the poem, “To Daffodils”, easy or difficult to understand. Answers should be supported with reference to both the language and content of the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Candidates may find the poem easy/difficult to understand because: of the use of personification; inclusion of slightly archaic/unusual words; vivid attractive imagery; inclusive language; short lines and stanzas; apt use of metaphors and similes; eternal questions of life and death are explored, etc.

OR

- (iii) Do you think the poet makes effective use of the natural world to teach readers a valuable lesson or lessons in the above poem? Give reasons for your response. Support your answer with reference to the poem.

Candidates should give at least two reasons why they do or do not think the poet makes effective use of the natural world to teach readers a valuable lesson or lessons in the poem, “To Daffodils”. Answers should be supported with reference to the poem. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: In showing us the brief existence of the daffodils the poet teaches us that human life is also brief; the poet uses other references to the natural world to emphasise his message; recognising the brevity of life may encourage us to value it and live it to the full; being reminded of the beauty of the natural world teaches us that we should appreciate our environment; we can also learn not to fear death as we are shown that it is part of the natural cycle of life, etc.

Candidates should identify three images from the extract from the poem “The Fish” that appears on the examination paper, and explain which one of their chosen images they find the most appealing. Consideration should be given to the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: A particular image may appeal because – it is especially detailed/vivid/true to life/tactile; it has photographic qualities; the choice of words is unusual/attractive/clever; of the use of colour; of the effective use of comparison; of how it captures a moment/an emotion, etc.

-------------------------	-----------	-----------

- (b) Do you find this extract from Bishop’s poem “The Fish” joyful? Explain your answer with reference to the poem. (15)

Candidates should explain whether, in their opinion, the extract from the poem “The Fish” printed on the examination paper is joyful, making reference to the extract in their answer. Consideration should be given to the quality of the explanation, the apt use of reference and the quality of all aspects of the response with regard to the Criteria for Assessment.

Indicative material: Candidates may find the extract joyful/not joyful because: we get to share the poet’s wonder at the beauty of the fish; of her jubilation at catching the one that had so often got away; of the courage and resilience of the fish; of the joy in being out in a boat on a sunny day; of the joy to be taken in the release of the fish; of the suffering of the fish; of the ignominy of reducing such a magnificent creature to captivity; of the damage humans do to nature; of the image of the oil spoiling the environment; of the cruelty involved; of the crude imagery of the hooks and the frayed line, etc.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS.

Candidates presenting for examinations with the aid of a scribe or a recording device or a spell-check enabled word processor and other candidates who have been granted an exemption in accordance with the State Examination Commission's RACE manual will have all parts of their examination in English assessed except spelling and written punctuation elements.

Clarity of Purpose	30% (to be assessed)
Coherence of Delivery	30% (to be assessed)
Efficiency of Language (including grammar)	30% (to be assessed)
Spelling and Written Punctuation	10% (not to be assessed)

This means, in effect, that these candidates will be assessed in all questions out of 90% of the marks available for the question.

Marks awarded for each question on Paper I and Paper II will be transferred to the script cover grid of each paper and totalled. As these totals were arrived at on the basis of a 90% application of the available marks, a mark that can be converted into a grade is arrived at by dividing the total for each paper by 9, and adding these marks to the original total in order to achieve a grand total for that paper.

Example:

Total for Paper I	= 135
Divide by 9	= 15
Grand Total	= 150

Fractions of marks are to be rounded down to the nearest whole mark.

Note:

In using Discrete Criteria consult the Assessment Grade Grid (Appendix 2) and apply the first of the three criteria.

In using the Combined Criteria the following will apply:

- Questions valued at 20 marks are assessed out of 18 marks
- Questions valued at 15 marks are assessed out of 13 marks
- Questions valued at 10 marks are assessed out of 9 marks.
